

125 Most Influential People of Indian Country

You are invited to nominate individuals, including yourself, who are shaping the future of American Indian academia, law, policy, government, and the non-profit community. Haskell's 125 Most Influential People is about discovering and showcasing those with a passion for culture, community, and the Haskell values of Accountability, Respect, Cooperation and Honesty (ARCH) Haskell Indian Nations University wants to honor those in Indian Country whose words and deeds reflect these values.

Nominees may reside anywhere, and nominations will be accepted through midnight CST on October 9, 2009. All submissions will remain confidential.

We will reveal the Haskell's 125 Most Influential People December 12, 2009 at the Haskell 125th Commemoration Gathering and Silent Auction.

Nominee's name:
Title:
Address:
Phone number:

Employment history relating to the nominee's qualifications for this award (include present duties):

--

Evidence of nominee's professional skill and competence, and recognition received (describe at least two recent exemplary activities; include evidence of their impact):

--

Impact nominee has made on the Higher Education and Learning profession using ARCH principles (Accountability, Respect, Cooperation and Honesty):

Nominee's contributions to the effectiveness of American Indian Higher Education and/or American Indian policy (give specific examples):

Nominator's name:

Address:

Phone:

E-mail:

Please return this nomination form via e mail, fax or regular mail by October 9, 2009 to:
125Committee@haskell.edu fax 785-749-8411 or 155 Indian Ave. Lawrence, KS 66046.
Questions? Contact Haskell at 785-749-8497 or president@haskell.edu